Scholarship Application

DEADLINE DATE: April 10, 2026

$1,000 scholarships will be awarded to eligible students in the My Two Sons Scholarship Program. Scholarships will be distributed in two installments of $500.

Giving God The Glory Ministries (GGG Ministries) proudly announces the availability of The My 2 Sons Continuing Scholars Renewal Scholarship to the My 2 Sons scholars who are active participants in the GGG Ministries Scholarship Program.

After careful consideration, Giving God the Glory Ministries is transitioning from the My Two sons: John|Sean Memorial Scholarship to the My 2 Sons Continuing Scholars Renewal Scholarship. We will no longer be accepting new applications effective January 2026.

Our current thirty six My Two Sons scholars will be eligible to apply for a renewal scholarship funded by the Legacy Scholarship Program and our Partner and donor donations, for the next 4 years.

We extend our sincere appreciation for your continued support and generous contributions. Your commitment plays a vital role in sustaining these scholarship opportunities and supporting the long-term success of our scholars.

In October of 1989, Sean Cater, the oldest son of Rev. Gloria J. Randolph, was murdered at age 21. As a result of this tragedy, she founded Giving God The Glory Ministries in 1997. Her youngest son, John Cater Jr., an award-winning journalist, died in January of 2010 at age 32. This was 6 months after he won the prestigious Emmy Award for Excellence in Reporting.

The “My 2 Sons: John|Sean Memorial Scholarship” honors the legacies of the late John and Sean Cater.

The thoughts and convictions of John and Sean Cater in their own words:

“I hope to inspire young Black males watching me, giving them the opportunity to see someone who looks like their brother, friend, cousin or even their next door neighbor. And when faced with the challenges of daily living, listen, pick and choose their fights, turn adversity into advantage and stay focused.”

JOHN L. CATER JR. – SEPTEMBER 12, 2004

“I, Sean A. Cater, vow that I will always give back my services to the best of my ability in order to help support and strengthen the youth of today’s society, especially the Black youth. Most importantly, I will teach my kids to give back to society so that they will feel the inner joy it brings to help a distressed individual.”

SEAN A. CATER – MARCH 20, 1989
